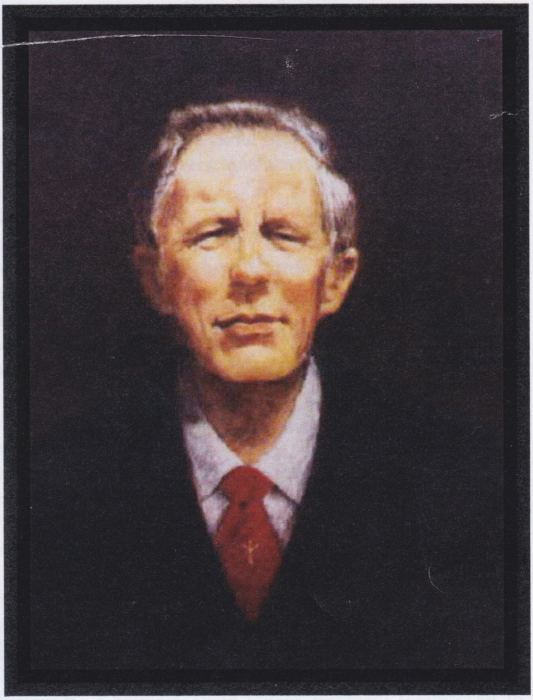
William Pierce, 20 Years On

William Luther Pierce, who half a century ago was the founder of both the National Alliance and of its spiritual foundation, Cosmotheism, died 20 years ago this month, on 23 July 2002.

In answer to the question posed on a popular Internet site, "Is William Pierce Dead Forever?" White Biocentrism forum member Richard G. gave us his answer:



William L. Pierce, 11 September 1933 - 23 July 2002; 1991 portrait by Will W. Williams

He is not dead forever, he is not even dead today. Yes, the body and consciousness of Dr. Pierce are no longer here in our presence; the functions of these two things have ceased for 20 years now. And we call this death. But there is a second death, a greater death, a truer death that men must face, and that is the last time someone will speak your name, honor your memory, and think about who you were as a person during your short time on this Earth. This second death is the fate of most of us, as even our descendants will forget us in time; few are known past their great-grandchildren.

But a man, a hero, a paragon like Pierce, who lived as a martyr for his people because of his profound love for them and endured that hardship with unshakeable resolve and iron will, will never know the second death. He has transcended this earthly coil in death to become something greater than he ever could have been in life: a legend, a symbol, an ideal. Though he believed in no afterlife, he has life eternal in this form. He will now live in the hearts of our people eternally as a man who single-handedly shaped the entire course of human destiny, no less than Alexander and Caesar, or Plato and Socrates. His words and deeds will be written on the hearts and minds of all our people to come, and by that means he will live on eternally in those hearts and minds. So long as a single son of the North and a single daughter of Europa draw breath and understand their place in the unfolding of the Creator's divine will toward self realization, Dr. William Pierce will not die.

He has become a part of the racial consciousness of our people, part of our race-soul. So long as European men live, so does Pierce. His words and ideas will guide us through this treacherous period in which we now find ourselves, until, once again, our race stands as the unquestioned master of this planet. Then he will guide us forward as we seed the stars with our life and beauty. Finally, what he has taught will guide us not just as we master our world, but as we master ourselves and climb the spiral stairs of our genetic manifest destiny from the men we are today, to the Higher Man we will be tomorrow, to the godhood that is our purpose. And in that godhood will be the life, the words, and the deeds of Dr. William Luther Pierce, eternal and undying. — Richard G. on whitebiocentrism.com forum on 23 July, 2022

National Alliance:
Movement of the Future
by R. Cavallius

The history of the pro-White movement in the United States is replete with organizations that have cropped up promising to lead our people to victory. Most of them accomplished very little, but a few made some respectable gains. Of those that still exist, however, only one has what it takes to be the vehicle our people really need to carry them into a brighter, Whiter future. That organization is the National Alliance. Because of its original ideology, viable plan of action, and high-quality membership, the National Alliance is the preeminent pro-White organization in America and the best hope for our people in this darkening age.

Organizations that follow comprehensive ideologies are far more consistent than political parties which change their platforms to garner votes. Further, developing an ideology based on the needs and circumstances of the time is better than using a preset one, for there is a special power in the novel, the revolutionary, the never-before-seen. Alliance founder William Pierce knew this, and he gave our organization an ideological framework that starts from what is demonstrably real and true, and corresponds perfectly to our race's current needs. The National Alliance believes that the world consists of a hierarchical natural order of which we are an integral part, and that our knowledge of this calls us to strict responsibilities to Nature, our people, and ourselves. Alliance ideology is rooted in Cosmotheism, a unique spiritual philosophy that recognizes the importance of race and is a much healthier alternative to the Christianity practiced by so many Whites today.

To realize the goals demanded by its ideology, the National Alliance engages in activity carefully designed to produce tangible results, such as recruiting serious members and massing resources. We are not foolish enough to hope for an overnight victory; rather we follow a long-term plan that involves building a revolutionary infrastructure which will grow stronger as the social fabric of the United States unravels under the pressures of rapid third-worldization. As the system opposed to us weakens itself through its suicidal policies, we will become more powerful until finally we are able to deal the system its death-blow and establish an all-White nation. With this in mind, the Alliance does not squander precious time and energy trying to win political elections or 'wake up' Whites who are not responsive to its message. Instead, it strives to become completely self-sustaining so as to form the nucleus of the aforementioned racial state, and it sees as vital steps in this process the creation of healthy media, the maintenance of its own tracts of land, and the geographical separation of its members from non-Whites.

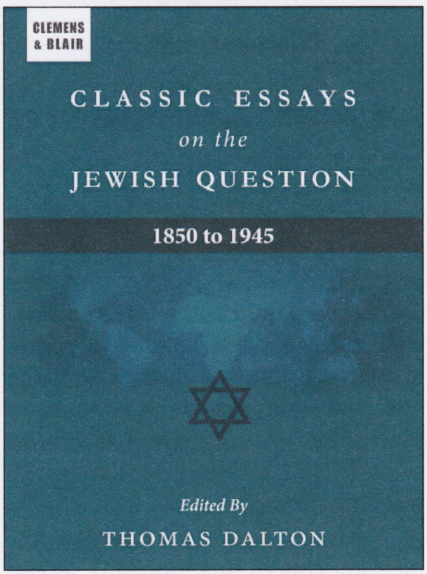
A quality organization attracts quality members, and the National Alliance is comprised of some of the best men and women in America. It realizes that ten dedicated members of good character are worth far more than a hundred half-hearts, so instead of seeking the illusion of strength in numbers, the Alliance maintains high recruiting standards and culls out those who are sure to weaken it. Members of the National Alliance consistently pay dues; supporters make donations as they can. This in itself serves as a filtering process by which most of the undesirables — hobbyists, freaks, constitutional losers, etc. — are weeded out of their own accord. Those who are unable or unwilling to add to the Alliance's strength quickly find themselves out of place among its members and supporters, while at the same time those Whites stick around who like what they find in the Alliance:

bright, disciplined, and racially-loyal people like themselves.

As the situation continues to deteriorate for White people in the West, more and more of them will begin looking for a lasting solution to their problems. No doubt many organizations and self-styled leaders will appear who, as in times past, will promise to have that solution. But none of them will have the staying power of the National Alliance, which has already long understood the true nature of our race's problems and taken steps to prepare for all contingencies. An ideology rooted in the deepest spiritual, cultural, political — and, of course, racial — wisdom known to man; a viable plan of action centered around building infrastructure and creating the base of a real racial state; a high-quality group of members and supporters who will stop at nothing to build a new White world: These are what define the National Alliance, and these are what guarantee its success. That is why the National Alliance is the movement of the future.

National Alliance Flag

There have been Alliance flags manufactured in the past — some good, some not so good — but we do not offer one currently. Seven years ago,



National Alliance Chairman Williams and Media Director Strom put their heads together and agreed on a design for our official National Alliance flag, to be used whenever the time came for making them and funds were available. An Alliance team has been looking into possibilities, hoping first to find a US flag manufacturer, one that will meet our high quality specifications, at a reasonable price.

Of course the main feature of our flag is our familiar Life Rune with oak leaf and acorn wreath in white on a blood red field, the same as that chosen for covers of William Pierce's novels and other books published during his life. The Life Rune used in our design (the same one used in the National Alliance and National Vanguard logos) is a direct, high-resolution scan of the design hand-crafted by Dr. Pierce himself. We should never use any other source for our official rune graphics.

Cosmotheist Books

We are adding four titles to our book store this month. Featured is Dr. Thomas Dalton's long-awaited 2022 Classic Essays on the Jewish Question, 1850 to 1945. (See illustration on previous page.) It is 350 pages, fully indexed, with a bibliography. This book for the first time compiles 16 classic essays into a single volume to inform non-Jews how they should view and deal with this pernicious minority in their midst — addressing that most important of all subjects, the Jewish question or "JQ."

The other three titles added to cosmotheistchurch.org/shop this month are: The Saxon Savior by G. Ronald Murphy. For those interested in the Christianization of Europe this is the first book in English on The Heliand, the 9th century Saxon epic poem in which the Christian Gospel of the four evangelists is translated into Germanic terms. It offers "a new socio-political explanation of the possible motives of the unknown author in undertaking this enormous and brilliantly realized poetic task"; The Strange Case of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde by Robert Louis Stevenson — "Dr. Henry Jekyll, fascinated by the dichotomy of good and evil, no longer wants to inhibit his dark side. He concocts a potion to create the alter ego of Mr. Edward Hyde. With the burden of evil placed on Hyde, Jekyll can now take pleasure in his immoral, nefarious fantasies — free of conscience and guilt. It's when Hyde turns to murder that Jekyll realizes how monstrous his impulses are and how hard they are to suppress. Exploring the nature of shame, repression, desire, and control, Stevenson's classic story has so endured that a 'Jekyll and Hyde personality' has become part of our lexicon in understanding our own — sometimes involuntary — duality"; The Border Wars of the Upper Ohio Valley, 1769-1794 by noted historian William Hintzen chronicles the bloody 25 years that encompassed the winning of the Eastern Frontier, centered at Fort Henry (known today as Wheeling, West Virginia). It brings back the fascinating days of Daniel Boone and other frontiersmen "[i]n a time and place where uncommon heroism and courage were commonplace..."

Correspondence

Chairman Williams, knowing minimum dues are $20 per month, I will now increase my donation to $100 per month for the National Alliance. — R.C., New York

Will, I am going to $30 a month from $25, and hope to one day this fall make the trip down, and see if I can help out with things while I am there.... I have many children and grandchildren and all are on board with the Alliance's stance. They know! — and get so infuriated with what they see around them and have to deal with. My wife is still home-schooling a bunch of them. Money is also enclosed for The Fame of A Dead Man's Deeds and Why Civilizations Collapse — I'll make sure all my grandchildren read them. Take care, brother! — W.S., Virginia

Chairman Williams, the June BULLETIN was very good! — especially news of the expansion of Alliance property. Question: Are you planning on selling the National Alliance property in West Virginia? — S.R., Virginia

Chairman Williams responds: Thanks to R.C. and W.S. for increasing your monthly pledges, and thanks, S.R., for the compliment and for your question.

Yes, we will sell the West Virginia property if and when we receive a suitable offer.

The 2018 sale of the rear half of that property — practically worthless to us, timbered, undeveloped, and on the slope of a steep mountain — provided the funds for the Alliance to purchase the original 50-acre parcel here in Tennessee on which we are now building. Proceeds from the sale of the remaining property in West Virginia will go toward building the William Luther Pierce Memorial Library and Research Center. Any members that would like to help us find a buyer, please contact me. We would prefer to "keep it in the family," so to speak, by selling it to a pro-White organization or individual, but in the alternative will sell to a corporation or church as a retreat. You can see an aerial view of the West Virginia property on page six of this BULLETIN.

The newly acquired, wonderful 4.2-acre property that graced the front of the exclusive June BULLETIN was not finalized until later this month. I shouldn't have announced such news until after closing, but was excited to share the news with our members last month since I was fairly sure the deal would be closed within days. When Kevin Strom asked me if I had an idea for what the 16 July American Dissident Voices broadcast should be, I suggested the subject of the historic secessionist State of Franklin in what is now Upper East Tennessee. I was glad to see he used my suggestion, but was slightly alarmed to see he also used that photo from the June BULLETIN in the text version of ADV, which can be viewed publicly by the world, including enemies, and before we had closed. Nothing detrimental happened to our delicate negotiations with the seller over this parcel of inestimable future value to our Alliance as a result — the transaction was not queered by any mutibillionaire enemy who may have seen the ADV. In future we will wait to announce what we have done after it is done, not before.

Chairman Williams, thank you for the information and invitation to join the Alliance. I am reading what you sent. Will you please send me your Show Trial book? ($50 enclosed.)Thank you, sir. — D.O., Illinois

This aerial view of part of our 86-acre West Virginia property does not point out the two other residences, the motor pool garage, or the nice home site where Dr. Pierce had his trailer and guest trailer, now gone. (See page five for more information.)

Chairman Williams responds: This nice lady ordered a copy of Simpson's Which Way Western Man? which we sent, then ordered a copy of Dr. Pierce's second novel, Hunter. When a customer has ordered such titles I see a prospective Alliance member, so I sent her a copy of our booklet Building a New White World with a short note. Now she wants a copy of Pocahontas Show Trial. If that book doesn't scare her away, learning about the injustice of "our" courts, we may gain another book-loving member to our ranks.

Commentary by Chairman William White Williams

Wolf Stoner Writes

Wolf, our National Alliance correspondent and member in Russia, always sends more than the required minimum dues each month, through an Internet service, usually accompanied by a short note in his native language which my wife, Svetlana, the Alliance's Business Manager, translates for me. This month he wrote: "Я очень рад тому что продвинулось строительство библиотеки. Я видел последние фото. Желаю успехов." Translated: "I am very happy that the construction of the library has progressed. I have seen the latest photos. I wish you success."

Here are a couple of other items Wolf wrote for us, either on National Vanguard or on our White Biocentrism forum, in the past month or so:

On the Russia/Ukraine Conflict
by Wolf Stoner

We should remain neutral in this war. Neither side represents our core values. William Luther Pierce in his radio programs had frequently touched upon the question of Jewish infiltration of the Russian power structure in the 1990s. Nothing of substance has changed since then. There is a dangerous delusion among many American conservatives that "Putin has chased the Jewish oligarchs out of Russia." Nothing could be further from the truth. In reality, organized Jewry has become even more powerful in Russia on Putin's watch.

Yes, there are some prominent Jews who harshly criticize Putin, but that is a part of the usual Jewish game of diversifying their bets. Jews always try to control both sides of any dispute. They enjoy privileged positions in Putin's system, and at the same time they have captured all prominent positions in the oppositional anti-Putin movement. Almost all of those "Russian opposition leaders" that you can frequently see on American television are either Jews, or puppets under tight Jewish control. It is a perfect situation for Jews. As long as Putin continues in power, Jews reap huge economic advantages in plundering the Russian economy. But when Putin's regime falls, Jews would jump to the head of the "liberation movement" that "frees oppressed peoples from tyranny." It is their usual game.

Our long-term task is to break up this vile scheme. We should strive to create a social situation in which it would be impossible for Jewish tricksters to manipulate political movements. I suppose that the only way out is the total chaos and collapse of organized society. The all-out internal war would spoil the whole Jewish scheme. They prefer to organize limited-scale Maidan-style turmoils, which can be easily channeled in their desired direction. But if chaos spreads farther, they would lose this ability, and it would give us an opportunity to fundamentally change the whole situation. But for now we should wait and carefully observe all sides of the conflict.

Jews influence Putin's neo-Bolshevik Kremlin as they do Ukraine's leadership. See Dr. Thomas Dalton's "The Jewish Hand in World War Three" on National Vanguard. Americans need not take sides in this far-off fratricidal dispute — take Wolf's advice: Stand by and just let it play out.

On Homosexuality
by Wolf Stoner

Promotion of homosexuality in any form should not be tolerated among nationalists — and nor should other vices. Homosexuality is a mental illness, first of all; there are no other valid interpretations of this phenomenon. Any attempt to legalise homosexuality in any way should be considered as an attempt to undermine society. Certainly, people who even vaguely try to morally justify homosexuality should have no place in the future White community. The main problem with the modern nationalist/traditionalist circles is that people, even if they share some of our ideas, continue to be a part of "Western" society generally — and that society is very sick. The mental stain of Jewish Hollywood pollutes almost every mind. Almost all people who join our ranks are in some way or another infected with this Hollywood mental illness and continue to spread it unconsciously. We can see those pop-culture influences in the wider "skinhead" movement; for example, that subculture's insane obsession with tattoos and even piercings. All of these trends should be expurgated from true nationalist communities. Such an expurgation is possible only in tightly-knit, isolated communities. It is hardly possible to achieve moral purification while continuing to live in the dens of vice that our modern megalopolises have become.

* * *

Wolf has his own opinions on these matters, ones I personally share. I don't care for tattoos or piercings myself, but our Alliance has no prohibition against them. Perhaps future generations of Alliance leadership will have a different policy. At present, though, we focus on the really crucial issues that impact our race. It is said by some that both tattoos and earrings are an Aryan tradition. Perhaps they are. But homosexuality, regardless of whether its practice infected certain Aryan societies in the past, needs to cease from this point forward among serious racial nationalists, as it is a degenerate lifestyle, detrimental to racial progress. Dr. Greg Johnson, who styles himself an intellectual leader of the "alt-right," wrote the following on his Counter-Currents Web site:

> I have met a number of homosexuals in the contemporary White Nationalist movement, and I have my suspicions about a few others. All of these people, however, are intelligent and accomplished. They are real assets to the movement... Quite a number of homosexual men do not fit the effeminate stereotype. They are masculine, and appreciate masculine things like facts, logic, and forthright action. And even effeminate gay men can make a real contribution...

Queers, whether manly or effeminate, can join with Dr. Johnson in his "contemporary White Nationalist movement." They are ineligible for National Alliance membership, as are others in the so-called LGBT community. Our members like it like that. W. W. W.

"You have to have total separation in order to survive for all time. [Other races] can't, and don't want to, and won't live among us in peace. And even if they did, it would kill us, because mixing with them would make us something other than what we are."

— Douglas Mercer
